Blum Aventos HK-S Stay Lift System Cover Cap - Light Grey - Right Hand

Variant code: 20K8A01RHG

Blum AVENTOS HK-S Cover Cap - Light Grey is designed to provide a clean and finished appearance for AVENTOS HK-S stay lift systems. Engineered as part of Blum's lift system platform, this cover cap conceals the lift mechanism, improving the overall visual presentation of cabinet interiors.

The cover cap clips securely onto the AVENTOS HK-S mechanism, ensuring a precise fit while maintaining full system functionality. The Light Grey finish offers a neutral and consistent appearance, complementing a wide range of cabinet interiors and coordinating with other Blum components.

Designed for durability and ease of installation, the cover cap allows quick attachment and removal without tools. It integrates seamlessly with the AVENTOS HK-S system, ensuring a professional finish while protecting internal components from dust and visual exposure.
