Blum Aventos HL Lift System Cover Cap Set - Light Grey - Left & Right

Variant code: 20L8020

Blum AVENTOS HL Cover Cap Set - Light Grey - Left & Right is designed to provide a clean and finished appearance for AVENTOS HL parallel lift systems. Engineered as part of Blum's lift system platform, this cover cap set conceals the lift mechanism components, enhancing the overall visual presentation of cabinet interiors.

The set includes left and right cover caps, ensuring complete coverage of both sides of the lift mechanism. These caps clip securely onto the AVENTOS HL system, providing a precise fit while maintaining full functionality. The Light Grey finish delivers a neutral, modern appearance that integrates seamlessly with a wide range of cabinetry styles and Blum system components.

Designed for durability and ease of installation, the cover caps can be fitted and removed without tools, making them suitable for both initial installation and maintenance access. They protect internal mechanism components from dust and visual exposure while maintaining a professional and consistent cabinet finish.
