Heritage Brass Sutton Door Handle Lever Latch on Round Rose – Reeded Design – Satin Brass

Make your interiors have timeless elegance and sophisticated charm of the Heritage Brass Sutton Door Handle Lever Latch. Crafted from premium solid brass and finished in a luxurious satin brass, this exquisite door handle combines traditional design with enduring quality, making it the perfect choice for both classic and contemporary homes.

Unparalleled Craftsmanship & Design:

The Sutton door handle features a distinctive reeded design on its lever, offering a delightful tactile experience and a visually appealing texture that catches the light beautifully. This intricate detailing harks back to classic architectural styles, adding a touch of refined grandeur to any door. Mounted on a sleek round rose, the clean lines ensure a seamless integration with your door, enhancing its aesthetic appeal without overpowering it.

Superior Quality & Durability:

As part of the renowned Heritage Brass collection, this door handle is synonymous with exceptional durability and longevity. Constructed from solid brass, it is inherently resistant to corrosion and wear, promising years of reliable operation and maintaining its lustrous finish. The satin brass finish not only provides a warm, inviting glow but also offers a low-maintenance solution, resisting fingerprints and smudges better than highly polished alternatives.

Smooth & Secure Operation:

Designed as a lever latch handle, the Sutton provides effortless and positive operation for internal doors. The robust mechanism ensures a smooth return action, while the secure latch offers peace of free movement and privacy. Ideal for bedrooms, living rooms, studies, and other internal spaces where a secure latching mechanism is desired.
